

CELL PHONE POLICY MR. LITTLE

According to the school guidelines, cell phone use is ONLY permitted for instructional purposes with the permission of the classroom teacher.

What phones SHOULD be used for in class:

- Google information about a question raised during class
- Take pictures of a homework or review key to help with studying
- Quick calculator for basic math (most times a scientific calculator is still needed)
- Visit teacher website to get information about assignments

What phones are ACTUALLY being used for most of the time in the classroom:

Use of the cell phone for these types of non-instructional purposes is EXTREMELY distracting! These activities prevent students from focusing on classroom / learning responsibilities and during labs, can be downright DANGEROUS!! Therefore, the following cell phone policy will be in place in Mr. Little's classroom:

- Students will put their phones on SILENT or OFF upon entering the classroom and place them in their assigned calculator slot in the front of the room... calculators may be borrowed at this time and used for the duration of the class period
- Cell phones will remain in the slot until close to the end of the block when the teacher allows them to be removed and the calculators to be returned
- In certain instances, phone use may be granted during class time at the discretion of the teacher

USING THE PHONE WITHOUT PERMISSION DURING CLASS OR HAVING A SECONDARY "DUMMY" DEVICE WILL RESULT IN CLASSROOM CONSEQUENCES AND POSSIBLE "ZERO" FOR ASSIGNMENTS THAT DAY!!!
